The 28th of November.

It may not be necessary, every year, to go into a detailed description of the events and reasons that have made the 28th of November a National Holiday in this country. The foreign guarantees of its independence date from that day; and for nineteen years it has been celebrated with hearty good will by the inhabitants, who, secure under the above guarantees. have done their best to develop the country and advance its interests of every kind.

The weather on this particular day was beautiful, as it always is on our national days. It having become known that their Majesties, the King and Queen, had chosen that day for their Confirmation in the Christian faith, according to the Reformed Catholic Church, a large concourse of people gathered at the Episcopal Church on Kukui Street. A little after 10 A. M., their Majesties arrived, escorted by the Hawaiian Cavalry, and were received outside the Church by the various companies of regular and volunteer militia who had turned out for parade in honor of the day. The Confirmation service was performed in an impressive and solemn manner by the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Honolulu. assisted by his Clergy, and at the close the Bishop addressed the congregation upon the duties of c-on

At noon a royal salute was fired from the battery makai of the Palace. Business places were closed; the town was decorated with flags, and wore that gala-day appearance, with well-dressed, quiet people and merry faces, which speaks of light hearts and sunny skies.

Their Majesties were accompanied to church by H. R. H. the Princess Victoria, the Queen Dowager, His Excellency the Governor of Oahu, Her Excellency the Governess of Hawaii, the Hon. Mrs. Rooke, and Mr. J. Y. Davis, of the Royal Family ; and of the Court, by the Chancellor of the Kingdom, Chief Justice Allen and Mrs. Allen, His Ex. Mr. Wyllie, the Honorables G. M. Robertson, C. R. Bishop, John Ii, and their Ladies, the Hon. Mrs. Haulelea, Miss E. K. Laanui and Sanitary Commission.

Having understood some time ago that the members of the above Commission had been appointed, we have been anxionsly and attentively looking and listening for some signs of its activity. As no meeting of the Commission has yet been held, it is probable that the members are individually preparing materials for their re port, to be discussed and arranged at an early meeting. The Commission is limited to six months time.

Auction Sales.

We call the attention of our readers to the sale of silver and plated ware and the collection of books which comes off this evening at Mr. Cole's auction room. It is the first evening sale for the season; the moon will be high in the heavens, and the weather be balmy as a night in June.

Correction.

We said in a previous issue that the Supreme Court had refused to hold an extra session for the purpos of hearing the liquor question. We have been told that we were misinformed; no motion for an extra session having been made, the Court could not have Mails to and from the East.

The Yankee leaves on Monday next for San Francisco with the mail and passengers and a large freight. The Young Hector may be here from San Francisco towards the 10th December, winds and weather permitting, which may not always be favorable this time of

Now Ready.

Published this day, the first part of the Hawaiian HYMNAL. May be had at the Polynesian office. Price 25 cents. This part contains the hymns in use in the Diocese of Honolulu for the services from Advent to Royal Hawaiian Theater.

An Amateur Minstre! Company performs at the above Theater this evening. The programmes are circulated, and comprise a great amount of fun and COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1802. The only foreign arrivals since our last issue is the John P. West with 700 bbls. oil, from Ochotsk, and the ship Adeline, from Lahaina, off and on.

On Saturday last the Hamburg bark Laura & Louise sailed for Bremen with a full and valuable cargo of oil, bone, hides, tallow, ivory, wool, bullock horns, &c.

Clipper ship Rattler sailed for Hongkong on Monday last, taking from this port 480 bbls Hawaiian flour, the manufacture of the Steam Flour Mill Company. Messrs. Severance and Cole sold on Saturday last real estate of the late firm of James Robinson & Co. to the amount of $26,- Halemanu, including three small lands adjoining, in all 12,399 acres, sold for $5,200. Wahiawa, 1,942 acres, sold for $1,220.

Makaha and small land adjoining it, located in Waianae, 4,969 acres, nold for $6,050.

Hoacae, in Ewa, with two lands adjoining, 4,233 acres, sold for Lot on Liliha Street, in Honolulu, 4 2-10 acres, sold for $675.

Slaughter house on King Street, $175.

Three lots on Walkiki Plains sold for $60. Canton Hotel premises, Honolulu, sold for $2,100.

Bay Horse Hotel premises, Honolulu, so'd for $3,200.

Reynold premises, Hotel Street, sold for $975.

The Wood and Parke premises, Honolulu, sold for $1,800.

The Kellett premises, on Nuuanu Street, sold for $1,525 J. H. Cole also sold, on Monday last, the Ewo Plantation at Hile, having about four years lease to run as it stands, with fixtures, crop, &c., for $20,100. Chung Hoon was the purchaser for a company of Chinamet. J. H. Cole will have a large sale on Saturday evening, at his sales room, of Japanese lacquered ware, silver plated ware, and fancy goods.

In general business we have no great improvement to notice. The Auction rooms appear to be doing a thriving business in dry goods and tobacco. Sales at full rates-some ships having sold enough of such articles to cover their disbursements at this port. Domestic produce is in no demand outside of local trade, which is quite limited.

The stock of sugar on hand is quite small; best grades held at 5 @ 8%c for kegs ; mats, 6% @ 7%c. COFFEE-The stock is quite large; jobbing sales at 18c.

HIDES-Light, well-trimmed hides, 8c. SK1N8-Goat skins, 25 @ 37%c.

PADDY-Not much inquired after, and 2c. is a fair quotation
